FAQs

What time do classes begin and end?

Typically, classes are held from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm with an hour lunch break. Trainers are available during breaks and after class to answer questions and to help individual students. Please note the starting time of your class as start times may vary.

Participants must return their building access badges before leaving for flights or travel.

What is the dress code in your building?

Business casual (including jeans) is encouraged, and we want each guest to dress comfortably while they are here.

What materials and technology are provided?

Duck Creek University provides each student with a laptop for all hands-on classes and provides all manuals and materials needed for the course. A Guest Network provides internet access for visitors.

What are the after-class entertainment options in the area?

Although Bolivar is a small town, there are good restaurants and a movie theatre. Springfield, Missouri is a 45-60-minute drive and offers a wide variety of restaurants, coffee shops, malls, nightclubs, sporting events, and entertainment options. Visit Yelp or Open Table for recommendations, directions and reservations.
