Unlock the Hidden Data and Decision Insights Trapped in Your Files

Duck Creek
Technologies

Insurance runs on documents, but traditional P&C processes slow your business down. Manual review creates bottlenecks and drains valuable time from your team. In a business where speed and accuracy matter, that's a problem.

That's why a purpose-built platform is essential for the processes and workflows that keep your business moving forward. Welcome to Duck Creek Intelligence: where Artificial Intelligence meets deep insurance expertise to deliver transparency, speed, and confidence across your operations.

Act on Key Insights Instantly

Duck Creek Document Intelligence combines deep insurance expertise with advanced AI to automate extraction, analysis, and summarization across claims, policies, billing, and more—without sacrificing control.

Built for real P&C workflows, it delivers speed, accuracy, and compliance at scale. By turning document complexity into clear, actionable insights, we help carriers make smarter, faster decisions with fewer errors and complete transparency so your team can focus on outcomes, not paperwork.
